

Sue E. Zazon
President, Central Ohio Region

Sue Zazon leads the diverse team of financial services professionals at Columbus-based Huntington Bank who are committed to serving consumers, businesses and communities across central Ohio.

A 31-year banking veteran, Sue joined Huntington in 2016 with the acquisition of FirstMerit, where she led the organization's consistent growth across greater Columbus for a more than a decade. Prior to FirstMerit, she held a number of positions at KeyBank, including service as central Ohio president.

Active in the community, Sue is a member of the board of trustees for the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, Columbus 2020, the Ohio Bankers League, Rev1 Ventures and The Wexner Center Foundation. She is also a member of Young Presidents' Organization Gold in Columbus. Sue is past treasurer and president of the YMCA board of trustees and past board member of Columbus Children's Theatre, Columbus Association for the Performing Arts, Experience Columbus, Columbus Symphony Orchestra and The Ohio State University East Hospital. She is also a past member of the United Way campaign cabinet and past chair of the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges and Law Enforcement Foundation annual campaigns.

In 2018, Sue was recognized by WELD as a "Women WELDing the Way" award recipient for making a positive impact on the economic and leadership development of women in Central Ohio. She is also the 2017 recipient of the Smart Business Magazine "Trailblazer Award" which recognizes an exemplary and high-ranking female executive who has made far-reaching contributions to the growth and sustainability of their organization. Sue is a former recipient of the Business First "Forty under 40" award which recognizes career achievements and community involvement.

Sue earned her bachelor's degree in finance and international business from Miami University of Ohio and graduated from the executive management program at Case Western Reserve University. She and her family reside in northwest Columbus.
